

GEE SILBERMAN Rancho Bernardo RSVP

As an assistant administrator for the RSVP, Gee has done an outstanding job in training our volunteers, organizing, and participating in special events and is always ready to volunteer for extra shifts.

JACEE CRAB Ride Above Disability Therapeutic Riding Center

Jacee dedicates two days each week to help with our horses and students. Demonstrating outstanding leadership and knowledge, he has mentored over 300 newer volunteers.

III. Seniors, Youth & Veterans

SUE GUPTA Ed Brown Center for Active Adults

Sue has created a thriving (and growing) Bridge Club for the community of RB that has contributed to an uptick in membership.

MICHELLE HAMAND Girl Scouts of Rancho Bernardo

Michelle has volunteered for over ten years, serving many years as our area Service Unit Manager and Activity Consultant to keep our community strong and our girl activities safe.

COL. JOHN VALENCIA Military Order of World Wars

As Deputy Commander of the MOWW John has worked tirelessly to arrange speakers and coordinate all the details of our monthly events. He is also taking the lead in a Youth Leadership Seminar for high school students.

DIANA FOSTER Quilts of Valor San Diego North County

Diana has been with our organization since its inception and never fails to create wonderful Quilts of Valor to award to our veterans and active duty service personnel.

KAREN WHITE Rancho Bernardo Senior Services

Karen lights up any room she enters. She is always ready to help our senior community. It is no surprise that she is a retired public relations manager.

DON SCHMIDT Rancho Bernardo Veterans of Foreign Wars

Don organized our Buddy Poppy distributions, which contributed monies to patriotic and educational causes. He also made visits to residential facilities to entertain veterans.

DAVID OLIVET Rancho Bernardo Veterans Memorial Association

David's faithful service as a Board Officer and effective volunteer exceeds two decades. The entire community greatly benefits from David's selfless leadership and generosity.

BARBARA FELDMAN Seniors Helping Our Kids

Besides being a dedicated reading tutor since 2009, Barbara coordinates the other senior volunteers at her school and trains new tutors just entering the program.

IV. Community Associations

SONNY GOOGINS Casa de Las Campanas

Sonny has been president of the Resident Association Council, a voting member of our Board of Directors, serves on the Rancho Bernardo Planning Board and the Rotary Club.

SAL PRAGER Community Association of Bernardo Heights

Sal's ideas on contract negotiations have been instrumental to keeping fees low. He always has very insightful and thought provoking ideas. He's a great volunteer.

PEGGY ENGLAND The Country Club of Rancho Bernardo

Peggy devotes countless hours to volunteer efforts at our Club. Most recently she spearheaded a golf event that raised over $70,000 for Solutions for Change. Her huge heart and generous spirit is loved and appreciated.

BOYCE STRINGER Oaks North Community Center

Boyce has been a longtime, reliable volunteer for our Center in many capacities – most recently stepping in to assist in our office during an emergency situation.

Continued on the following page

Cindy Pearson
REALTOR® DRE# 00628857
Simply the Best

951.312.4950
cindy.pearson50@gmail.com

RE/MAX
CONNECTIONS
16840 Bernardo Center Drive, San Diego, CA 92128